

Acharei Kedoshim Answers

1. We cannot force our ways before God
2. We need to come before God, humble, cleanse, atoned and with prayers and substitution
3. One sacrifice, one remove sin the other atone. Confession, repentance are required
4. Confession, repentance, contrition, fasting
5. We need to follow God's directions to receive atonement, or will be cut off. If we don't sacrifice to God, we sacrifice to demons
6. Given for atonement
7. God provide cleansing, but we need to apply it
8. Separating ourselves from the world, and following God's instruction
9. We need to control the desire of the flesh, respect our families and others. Sin make us loose our blessings
10. Our allegiance to God comes first
11. We need to be prompt in participating in our atonement
12. We need to carry each other burden. Honoring others is honoring God
13. We need to be ready to confront sin and offenses in love. Love is the essence of Torah
14. We need to live in holiness, and put God first, and seek him not secrets
15. Sin will not be tolerated nor hidden. We need to live in holiness. Every aspect of our life is guided by Torah